A Vested Choir for Christ Church.

The Sunday morning musical parts of the service in Christ Church will be for the first time in the history of the church by a vested choir of men and boys.

The vestments so called, consist of a black cassock which reaches to the ground and a pure white collar reaching to the knees. The choir will consist of twelve boys and eight men, an equal number on each side of the choir or equal to the north side of the choir and the south side of the choir. There are eight boys and four men, and the men are four alto boys and four tenors, and the choir has been trained during the last two months by Mr. Frederick T.

Camp, formerly of Trinity Church Choir,

New York. The organist is Prof. Fidler.

The vestments were made by some of the members of the congregation.

The advantages of boy choirs, that is of choirs composed of men and boys, over choirs of men and women, or quartet choirs, have become so manifest in this country in recent years that they are the rule here. The advantages of boy choirs, as compared with those of men and women, are that they are at once economical and that if the Apollo's command is "let all things be done decently and in order" it is to be observed, the choir must be decently robust in order to present an appearance of uniformity in their seats or stalls.

Some people, and not old-fashioned people either, are inclined to regard a vested choir as a symbolical of Ritualism, or Ritualism. In this however they are greatly mistaken. There is not only distinctly biblical authority for the vested choir, but also for the processions and recessions. But to those who are not entirely ignorant of the fact that it is only a vestment, and not a ritual, it is

Bloomfield Council, B. A.

The members of Bloomfield Council

No. 500 Royal Arcanum gave a very pleasant entertainment last Friday evening. The occasion was the fourth anniversary of the organization of the Royal Arcanum in this town. Masonic Hall the present headquarters of the Council, was crowded with guests.

The members of the Council received the visitors in a very cordial manner, and were diligent and attentive in their treatment of them. The Regent of the Council,

Mr. Fred M. Davis, was Master of ceremonies and welcomed the audience in a brief address. The programme with one exception consisted of vocal and instrumental music, and was opened with a piano solo by Mr. W. C. Carl. Mr. Carl appeared twice during the evening, and each time was highly appreciated. Mrs.

Frank H. Baker sang a highly appreciated. Soprano solo with harp accompaniment were rendered by Miss Meeklen and Mr. Meeklen, and were well received, the audience insisting on repetition at each appearance. Mr. W. W.

Schouler rendered two songs in an excellent manner, and in response to encouragement rendered the audience with some pleasing songs and a comic song. Mr.

Meeklen closed the programme with a harp solo.

During the evening Mr. Geo. W. White of Hoboken, N. J., delivered a very interesting address, his subject being "The Royal Arcanum—What It Is, and What It

Has Accomplished." Mr. White claimed for the Arcanum that it ranked among the best and safest life insurance societies in existence. Refraining from services, the Arcanum was a happy mood with best wishes for the success of Bloomfield Council.

The Township Committee meets on Monday night.

Mr. John Sanderson and family have moved to Brooklyn.

The Easter ball of the Dickersons, Battery will take place Monday night.

Mr. Samuel Clapper sailed for England in the steamship Teutonic last Wednesday night. Mr. Porter, of State street, has moved to New York, to 110th street, Harlem.

Mr. George Thomas, of Morris Place, is spoken of for the office of Overseer of the roads.

Mrs. Samuel White, of Park street, is spending the week with her sister at Hackensack, N. J.

Special Easter exercises will be held by the Sunday school of the Park M. E. Church tomorrow.

A township Surveyor will probably be appointed by the Town Committee on Monday night.

Town Committeeman Chas. H. Hamilton returned from a business trip to Virginia on Wednesday of last week.

Miss Cleary Corcoran of Bridgeport Conn.

is visiting her uncle, the Rev. J. M. Egan on Park avenue.

Harry King, of Belleville avenue, has returned to Colorado after a three months visit at his father's.

The Rev. Gottfried Voss and wife, of Newark, are visiting her mother, Mrs.
